FOREWORD.

THIS volume is presented to the public as the first edition of the North Shore Directory, compiled and published by The Evanston Index Company. In it the publishers have striven to give to their patrons a complete and concise business and residence directory of all that district lying along the lake shore between Chicago and the Lake county line. In it is contained, therefore, a careful compilation of the names, residence addresses, residence telephone numbers, business addresses, and business telephone numbers of all residents in the city of Evanston and in the villages of Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka, and Glencoe. It is believed that the street directory and the general information given in the first part of the book will prove to be useful and valuable to the purchasing public.

The compilation of this Directory was concluded August 15, 1904.
