

Remember Winnetka Historical Society in Your Will or Trust

A bequest is an easy way to help ensure Winnetka Historical Society continues to honor and preserve the village's heritage, gather and share the artifacts and stories of its past, and foster meaningful connections among Winnetkans and the broader community. Including Winnetka Historical Society in your will or trust enables you to leave a lasting legacy to ensure Winnetka's history is accessible to generations to come.

Make a bequest to the Winnetka Historical Society

- Support an important cause
- Designate a specific asset or a percentage of your estate
- Create a lasting legacy for you and your family

Here is sample bequest language you can share with your attorney:

"I give, devise, and bequeath to The Winnetka Historical Society, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation (EIN 36-6110212), having its principal offices in the Village of Winnetka, State of Illinois, (a specific amount or a percentage of the estate) to be used for the area of greatest need.
